

Concerning the Consumer Bankers Association attempt to overturn/challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I am not suprised that someone is trying to get around our law. I would be most apalled if you actually let it happen. Isn't the premise of this country, a government of the people by the people? If the people do not want to be bothered by the most annoying form of marketing, then we should not be bothered by it. If it gets overturned or ammended then I guess we know whos pockets the FCC is really in. The people of Indiana have spoken and it is expected of government, our employees, that you up hold our wishes! Big business and special interest groups should never be allowed to overturn the peoples wishes. I fully expect the CBA challenge to be tossed in full! Thank you - Ronald Buckingham
